

HABITAT ASSESSMENT

Thunderbolt Marsh

HSA completed a marshline delineation to determine and delineate the transition line between the salt marsh and deep water habitat in select locations along the Inter-Coastal Waterway (ICW) in Georgia. The delineation was required by the Georgia Department of Natural Resources (DNR) to protect the fragile salt marsh during a planned dredging operation designed to deepen the river at three marina access points.

LOCATION

Chatham County, Georgia

SERVICES RENDERED

Ecosystem Management